42 APPLICATION FOR EX PARTE ORDER AUTHORIZING FRBP 2004 EXAMINATION
43 AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
44 (CHASE BANK)

45 TO THE HONORABLE RENÉ LASTRETO II, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY

46 JUDGE:

1 TULARE LOCAL HEALTHCARE DISTRICT, dba TULARE REGIONAL MEDICAL
2 CENTER ("TRMC" or "Applicant"), Debtor in the above captioned Chapter 9 bankruptcy
3 proceeding, hereby files this Application for Ex Parte Order compelling Chase Bank, to 4 produce certain documents for inspection and copying and, if requested, to appear for a
5 FRBP 2004 Examination.

7 Chase Bank
8 1079 E. Prosperity Ave.
9 Tulare, CA 93274

10 Applicant represents as follows:

11 1. TRMC filed a voluntary Chapter 9 petition on September 30, 2017.

12 2. TRMC has reason to believe that Chase Bank, is in possession of information needed by TRMC which affects the rights of TRMC as well as the 13 administration of this bankruptcy estate.

14 3. TRMC believes that the information needed bears upon the acts, conduct, or assets and liabilities of TRMC.

15 4. The examination will also relate to the operation of the TRMC's business and the desirability of its continuance, the source of any money or property acquired or 16 to be acquired by TRMC for purposes of consummating a plan and the consideration given or offered therefore, and any other matter relevant to the case or to the formation 17 of a plan.

18 5. Conducting such examination will assist TRMC in protecting its interests in evaluating any plan that may be advanced and in furthering the administration of this 19 Chapter 9 proceeding.

20 6. By this Application TRMC requests that it be permitted to compel the production of documentary evidence in the manner provided in FRBP 9016 followed by 21 an examination, if requested, of Chase Bank.

22 7. By the requested Order Applicant will proceed to have issued a
23 Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination with Production of Documents to be followed by

1 the examination of the witness, if documents are requested, no earlier than 10 days
2 after the date of issuance of the examination order or subpoena, whichever is later.

3 WHEREFORE, Applicant prays as follows:

4 A. The Court enter Order pursuant to FRBP 2004 authorizing the examination
5 of Chase Bank;

6 B. The Court enter an Order pursuant to FRBP 2004 authorizing the issuance
7 of a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination with Production of Documents; and 8 C. For such other and further relief as is just and proper.

EXHIBIT A

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Rule 2004, made applicable by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9016, Tulare Local Healthcare District, dba Tulare Regional Medical Center ("TRMC"), by and through counsel of record, hereby requests that Chase Bank produce the following documents on February 2, 2018 at 10:30 a.m.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT AND DEFINITIONS

You are required to conduct a thorough investigation and provide all information available to you, including information in the custody or possession of your attorneys, investigators, experts, agents, representatives or anyone acting on your behalf excluding information privileged under the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or other reasonable objection.

The terms "document" or "documents" shall mean and includes any medium, including without limitation writings, papers, recordings, letters, correspondence, telegrams, memoranda, notes, computer printouts, transcripts, minutes of meetings, applications, reports, statements, reports or paraphrases of statements, books, agreements, appointment calendars, diaries, publications, drawings photographs, contracts, records of telephone conversations or face-to-face conversations, notices, rules, regulations, directives, employee manuals, instructions, time sheets, logs journals, diaries, financial statements, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computerized records, such as e-mails, microfilm, microfiche and data compilations, upon which intelligence or information can be recorded, maintained or retrieved including without limitation, the original or a copy thereof, regardless of the origin and location, of any writing or recording of any type or description, however produced or reproduced, which is in your custody or control, or a person under your custody or control, or to which you have or had access, or of which you have knowledge or which you have a right or privilege to examine upon request or demand, and includes any and all writings and recordings as the term is used in Rule 1001(1) of the Federal Rules of Evidence and

1 includes the original (or a copy if the original is not available) and any non-identical copies
2 (whether different from the original because of notes made on the copy or otherwise).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

- (1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:
- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
 - (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)
